

ITEMS OF INTEREST
IN AND ABOUT TOWN

Happenings of the Day in Various Parts of the Nation's Capital.

The marriage license counter in the old Census Building is usually a place where cheerfulness radiates.

In fact, Col. William A. Kroll, captain in command of the port where supplies are taken, is supposed to start his cruise, is the very personification of joy.

But he has permitted a discordant note to creep into his usual symphony of happiness.

It is seen in the color and material of the binding he uses for tying together reports from ministers certifying to the marriages performed.

Instead of hard hemp twine, denoting security, he uses a fine silk, the color of which is Dead black crepe.
